

INVITATION

Discussion and workshop on the situation with good governance and recommendations for its improvement

13 October 2016, Public Room, Skopje

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Metamorphosis Foundation invites you to the discussion and workshop on the situation with good governance and recommendations for its improvement, which will take place on 13 October 2016, in Public Room, Skopje, at 10:30 AM.

The aim is to gather representatives of the civil sector to evaluate the current good governance situation in Republic of Macedonia, viewed from several points of view, to share past experiences, good practices and to propose ways for improvement of the good governance mechanisms in the future.

Within the discussion, several civil sector representatives will present the good governance situations in Macedonia, and later will analyze the ways for improving the situation alongside with their colleagues from Bosnia and Herzegovina, Serbia and the Czech Republic.

Furthermore, as a part of the workshop, the representatives of the countries from Western Balkans and the Visegrad Region, alongside with other attendees, will present their good practices with focus on successful ICT tools that have proved as most practical and most useful.

This event is part of the ACTION VISEGRAD SEE project, whose objective is to promote a dynamic civil society that effectively mobilizes citizens for active engagement on good governance issues within the context of EU accession, and influences policy and decision-making processes at national and regional level in Western Balkans.

Please RSVP not later than 11 October 2016 (Tuesday) by sending an e-mail to goran@metamorphosis.org.mk or by dialing 02/3 109 325, contact person: Goran Rizaov.

Cordially,

Metamorphosis Foundation
