USAID's Civic Engagement Project (CEP) is seeking one (1) qualified Expert on Openness Index to summarize the results and draft the Report on the Openness Index of the Local Self-Government 2022.

1. Background

The Civic Engagement Project facilitates dialogue between citizens and the Government of North Macedonia on important social issues. This program strengthens constructive engagement by CSOs on policies and issues that target anti-corruption, transparency, and rule of law, and it increases and sustains youth engagement in public life. Through this program, USAID partners with North Macedonia's democratic institutions to help the country implement strategic reforms focused on accountability, transparency, justice, and corruption to advance reforms and EU accession.

2. Objectives

Under USAID 's Civic Engagement Project, Metamorphosis implements activities to advance institutions' openness via (1) research, (2) capacity development as well as (3) development of tools. The Openness Index is a composite set of indicators that objectively measure institutions' openness – informs all three types of activities mentioned above and is among the principal activities to guide government openness and engagement.

For this purpose, CEP plans to engage (1) Expert on Openness Index to (1) summarize the results, and (2) draft the Openness Index of the Local Self-Government 2022.

The Openness Index assesses the performance of the LSGUs in the area of good governance by focusing on four pillars: (1) accessibility, (2) awareness, (3) integrity, and (4) transparency with a cross-cutting domain observed throughout all four pillars – open data.

The four pillars of the Openness Index define and assess good governance along these principles: accessibility assesses the degree at which the right to information is guaranteed by law and in practice, as well as the quality of the mechanisms for engagement and consultation in policymaking processes; awareness looks at the institutions' commitment to learn from ongoing processes and improve them through established monitoring, evaluation and learning systems – by using milestones/indicators during strategic planning and reporting; transparency assesses the public availability of organizational information, budget and public procurement procedures; while integrity evaluates the presence of mechanisms for the prevention of conflict of interest, the regulation of lobbying, as well as the availability of a Code of Ethics to guide and sanction the behavior of public servants.
